

International Coaching Week February 5-11, 2012 Article & Story Submission Request

International Coach Federation
GTA Chapter

International Coaching Week is coming! To celebrate the week and our members, we are inviting you, our professional coaches, to share your thoughts about the profession of coaching, specifically on any one of the following questions:

- What is the future of the profession of coaching?
- What are the keys to a successful coaching practice?
- What is the biggest challenge faced by the coaching profession in 2012?
- What makes coaching effective in human development?
- What do you celebrate in your journey as a coach?
- What passion do you bring to your work as a coach?
- What core competency brings full benefit & value to your clients?

Please keep your submission to 250 words or less. We will retain your submissions for possible future publication by the ICF GTA. Please include a short synopsis about your business and your area of coaching. We will be sharing the entries that are selected for publication primarily during International Coaching Week.
